OPEN TO THE WORLD

The Great World's Fair Has Begun.

MACHINERY SET IN MOTION.

President Cleveland Presses the Button, the Flags Unfold, the Machinery Starts and the World's Fair Begins to Make its History.

CHICAGO, May 1.—With imposing ceremonies the great Columbian exhibition was opened to the world today by the president of the United States. The dedicatory exercises were not over an hour long. A drive to the grounds, with civic and military escort, a prayer, a recitation, four brief addresses and a private dinner.

The rendezvous for the various organizations and carriages that took place in the parade was the vicinity of the Lexington hotel, at Michigan avenue and Twenty-second street, at 8:30 o'clock. The column marched at 9 o'clock on Michigan avenue along the Grand boulevard to Fifty-first street, thence through South park by way of Bayard avenue to Palmer avenue, thence to the western entrance of Midway Plaisance. At this point Colonel Rice, commanding the Columbian guard, met the column and guided it to Jackson park, thence to the administration building where the column dispersed.

When the president reached the administration buildings a salute of guns were fired. The entire party was at once escorted to the grand stand, where the program of the opening exercises were fully carried out, except the choral music, which was abandoned at the last moment on account of the limited space on the platform.

The grand stand, which filled up the east entrance to the administration building, and projected out on either side in front of the pavilions, seated 2,000 invited guests and 250 newspaper representatives, besides the 60 distinguished guests who were on the little platform which was thrown out in front for President Cleveland.

The exercises began with a musical selection by the grand orchestra. The Rev. W. H. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the United States congress, offered prayer. Miss Jessie Couthont recited a poem, which was followed by music from the orchestra.

President Palmer of the national commission then announced the completion of the buildings and their acceptance from the officers of the exposition.

PRESIDENT PALMER ADDRESSING THE CROWD.

Director General Davis then delivered a short and appropriate address.

Then President Cleveland delivered a brief address and pressed the button, and the ponderous machinery of the greatest exposition ever seen was started.

When the president touched the button 700 flags and banners on the main buildings broke into graceful folds. Jimmie Hunt, an old sailor, had his eye on the president and his hand on the halyard of the center flagstaff in front of the administration building, and when the executive finger touched the button Jimmie gave the halyard a quick pull. Then the "old flag" burst out at the top of the pole, and the stars and stripes waved over an open fair. The flags on the other buildings were unfurled simultaneously. About 700 men were necessary to carry out the designs of the decoration department. There was a man for each flagstaff on the main buildings and grounds.

At the close of the ceremonies a luncheon to the president took place, after which the president was escorted to the manufacturers' building by Director General Davis. He was introduced to the members of the foreign commission, who were grouped in the center of the building. He then passed out to the government building, and afterwards was driven around the grounds.

CLEVELAND'S SUNDAY.

How the President Put in the Day Before the Ceremonies.

CHICAGO, May 1.—President Cleveland spent a quiet Sunday mingling religion, social calls, driving and reception of visitors in a moderate manner, as becomes the head of a great nation. He arose early after a refreshing night's repose, and breakfasted at 9 o'clock with members of his cabinet in the public diningroom, declining to take any of his meals in the private dining-room.

At 10:30 o'clock the president, accompanied by the secretary of state and Mrs. Gresham, the secretary of the navy and Miss Herbert, drove in carriages two blocks to Second Presbyterian church at Michigan boulevard and Twentieth street, where arrangements had been made for the reception of the party. They were conducted to a prominent seat in the body of the big church, which had been quietly draped with the national flag. There was a beautiful display of palms, bloom plants, ferns cut flowers in vases arranged on and around the pulpit and other parts of the edifice. The congregation was a large one.

The pastor, Rev. Simon J. McPherson, preached an eloquent sermon appropriate to the opening of the exposition, the subject being: "The Man of God at the Opening of the World's Fair Gates." The president and members of the cabinet joined heartily in the song service and seemed to be oblivious of the glances cast at them by the congregation. A large crowd gathered outside the church portals and in the lobby to see Mr. Cleveland, but there was no demonstration on his return to the hotel. He expressed the wish that as his going to church was in his capacity as a private citizen there should be no unseemly display.

After luncheon at the hotel the president accepted the invitation of his secretary of state to accompany him in making a few social calls on old friends. Secretary Gresham took the president to his own home and they enjoyed the drive even if the weather was cold.

damp and raw, with the never-let-up north wind blowing.

For the rest of the afternoon and evening, excepting the time occupied at dinner, the president remained in his apartments receiving a few favored callers. Among those who obtained an audience were Franklin McVeagh, brother of Wayne McVeagh the Pennsylvania Democrat of recent conversion; Washington Hesting, editor of the Illinois Staats Zeitung, who says he swung the Illinois Lutherans into line for Cleveland; Erskine M. Phelps, Major General Nelson A. Miles, Jacob W. Richards, who wants to be Chicago's internal revenue collector; D. K. Hill, brother of New York's theatrical manager and Perry H. Smith Jr., who has his eye on a foreign post.

Secretary Gresham and Mr. Phelps drove out together in the afternoon to dine with a mutual friend. Secretaries Herbert, Smith and Morton had numerous callers during the day, a Chinese magnate with a Quaker hat being one of the interior secretary's visitors.

The president retired early so as to be prepared for the task of opening the fair.

EIGHT HUNDRED MEN KILLED.

The Bloodiest Battle Yet Fought in the Brazilian War.

VALPARAISO, May 1.—News of the bloodiest battle which has been fought since the revolution began in Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil, has just reached here via Buenos Ayres. The Herald correspondent in that city telegraphs that an engagement was fought near San Luis. General Telles led the government forces, and General Tavares commanded the revolutionary army. Details of the battle have not yet been obtained, owing to imperfect telegraphic service from the section where the engagement took place, but it is reported that 800 men were killed. These were divided nearly equally between the two armies. Victory is claimed for each side and the actual result of the fight may not be known for several days.

It is believed in Buenos Ayres that the revolutionists of Rio Grande do Sul will abandon the siege of Uruguay. The town is so well protected by gunboats that its capture seems now to be impossible. Troops sent down by the general government and Castil's forces have been sent to the frontier to reinforce the three regiments stationed there by the Uruguayan government to guard the latter's territory from raids from the Brazilian revolutionists. Small bodies of revolutionists have been disarmed near the frontier by Uruguayan troops.

The Herald's correspondent at Artigas telegraphs that troops belonging to the national guard of Brazil invaded Uruguayan territory at Carotes. They killed the chief of police and stole money, cattle and horses. The official in charge of the town has asked the government at Montevideo for assistance.

Newspapers in Santiago and Valparaiso comment on the denials published in London by the minister from Brazil of the Herald's reports concerning the revolution in Rio Grande do Sul. They compare these denials with those made by Balmaceda's ministers during the Chilean revolution and the stories published by The Herald at that time.

The new congress which has just assembled will pass a law extending the president's powers to proclaim a state of siege until December, should the condition of affairs make that necessary.

BIG BANK FAILURE.

The National Bank of Australia Closes Its Doors.

LONDON, May 1.—A dispatch from Melbourne announces the failure of the National Bank of Australia. The bank has some 150 branches in Australia and agencies in most large cities of the United Kingdom, the continent and the United States.

The directors of the head office in Melbourne are Arthur S. King, John Grace and W. A. Zeal. The authorized capital of the bank is $2,000,000; subscribed capital, $1,250,000; paid up capital, $1,000,000; reserve fund, $670,000; reserve liabilities of shareholders, $1,500,000. Its assets are now estimated at $10,000,000; its liabilities in the colonies only at $7,500,000.

The cause of the failure was a heavy run on the bank and all its branches. Since April 10 more than $6,500,000 has been withdrawn from deposit. At the official meeting on last Thursday a dividend of 10 per cent, payable on May 9, was declared.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS.

Two Unions in Chicago Decide to Go Out on a Strike.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Unions Nos. 9 and 41, National Brotherhood of Electrical Workers of America, held a joint session last evening at Plasterers' hall, 192 Washington street, which was attended by a large portion of the 1,200 members. A long discussion was held and it was decided that all members of the order working for contractors who have failed to sign the new contracts shall go out on a strike.

The new demands of the unions are for 37 1-2 cents an hour, or $3 a day of eight hours, and that none but union men shall be employed. They claim that there are 146 contractors for electrical work in the city, eight of whom have agreed to the demands, and are employers of over 1,000 men. The unions agree to stand by the contractors who accede to their demands, and to do no work for those who refuse to sign, no matter what price may be offered.

Floods in Nebraska.

OMAHA, May 1.—Reports received from all over Nebraska confirm the fact that the rains of last week were general. The southeastern part of the state no rains had fallen since last fall, and this rain of last week will aid agriculture greatly. The fruit has been little injured by the cold weather, and while corn planting will be later than usual this year, the condition of the soil and prospects in general are better for crops in Nebraska and Iowa than they have been for several years.

Cyclone Doings in Oklahoma.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 1.—News from the scene of Friday's cyclone on the Cherokee strip is very slow in coming in, owing to the fact that rain has fallen ever since. The streams are all up and many bridges gone. The death list, as far as reported, is: J. J. Keathley, wife and two children, Mr. Keathley and two children, five members of the Little family. About a dozen Indians and many others were injured, and hundreds of cattle perished.

Sir Julian Pauncefote Better.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador, is much better. His condition is not regarded as all serious.

OHIO MINERS STRIKE

Twenty Thousand Have Quit Work.

INCREASE OF PAY DEMANDED.

A Long and Bitter Struggle Begun, as Neither Side Are Willing to Make Concessions—Pittsburg Miners Are Not With Them.

COLUMBUS, O., May 1.—Twenty thousand miners in Ohio went out on a strike this morning. The order was given at a meeting of delegates from every district in the state, held here Saturday. There were only 4 dissenting votes out of 30 cast. The miners demand a general advance of 5 cents in the price of pick-mining and will hold out until it is conceded.

In some of the districts the advance is more than 5 cents, being 20 cents in the Jackson coal fields and 15 cents in the Columbus districts. In the machine mine districts an advance of 12 cents is demanded.

The operators say they will not grant advances under any circumstances. The action of the Pittsburg miners in refusing to strike for an advance caused a warm discussion in the delegate meeting, but it was not considered it would materially affect the chances of the Ohio men winning.

LODGINGHOUSE BURNED.

Six of Its Inmates Burned to Death. Names of the Victims.

BURLINGTON, Ia., May 1.—Early Sunday morning an old brick lodginghouse conducted by Mrs. Judson at 55 Jefferson street, was destroyed by fire and six of its inmates burned to death. The lodgers were of the poorer class of laborers and mechanics, about 25 of whom occupied the various rooms up stairs. The building was a veritable firetrap, and so quickly did the fire spread that the unfortunate victims were caught like rats in a trap.

The names of the dead men are as follows: Michael Hines, Michael Lee, John Morgan, G. Schumann, Joseph Schwendler.

All were burned in a shocking manner. There are several suspicious circumstances connected with the fire, which the coroner will investigate.

The loss to the building and contents was probably $2,000, with small insurance.

HAILSTORM IN ILLINOIS.

Great Damage Done to Buildings and Other Property.

ALTON, Ill., May 1.—The country northwest of this city was visited by a severe hailstorm. The average size of the hailstones was as large as an orange, one picked up at Melville measuring 1 1/2 inches in circumference.

At the Monticello seminary 300 window lights were knocked out. In many instances roofs were shattered by the flying balls of ice. The Missouri, Kansas and Eastern road's new trucks were washed away, causing a loss of at least $100,000. The Mississippi is now two miles wide here, with every prospect of reaching the disastrous stage of last year.

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED.

Fortunately All the Passengers Escaped Without Serious Injury.

CINCINNATI, May 1.—A water-soaked embankment gave way under an Ohio and Mississippi passenger train, on the bank of the old White Water canal, near Delhi, O., and the engine, baggage, mail and express and one sleeper left the track and plunged into the canal.

Had they fallen on the opposite side of the bank none of the many passengers would have been alive today, as all would have landed in the rising tide of the river. As it was, all escaped without serious injury. The engineer was proceeding cautiously in fear of such an accident.

Troops Not Needed.

DENVER, May 1.—Although troops have been called for by the settlers in the San Luis valley for protection against the raids of the Navajos, the indications at the governor's office are that but few if any of them will be needed. The Indians have returned to their reservation. Armed men have gone forward from Durango and other points in southwestern Colorado, it is believed in sufficient force to protect the people. Troops are in readiness to move, however, if needed. Arms, ammunition and other equipments were sent out from this city and Durango late last night for use if necessary.

William Estill, the check forger, is wanted Boone County. When he escaped from the jail here a few days since photographs of him were sent out over the State by Jailer Kirk. Mr. Kirk received a letter from James B. Cummins, of Verona, Boone County, Saturday, which tells of some of Estill's crooked work in that section. Estill worked for Cummins about ten days, before coming to this section, and when he disappeared a ladies' gold watch, a plain gold ring and another ring set with cameos and pearls disappeared with him. Mr. Cummins writes that Estill is acquainted around Oxford, Scott County.

Attorney General Hendrick Rushing Things.

Attorney General Hendrick scored a succession of victories in the Franklin Circuit Court Friday. First, he secured an order placing the Mason-Forard Company in equity to be heard by a Master Commissioner, and a similar order in the untied cases pending against Tate and his bondsmen in the Treasury defalcation matter. Then a verdict and judgment and the full amount sued for by the State upon the bond of a Henry County defalcating official, which is unprecedented with a Franklin jury for eighteen years past, and lastly he secured a perpetual injunction restraining Miles & Sons and two railroad companies from constructing or operating a switch on Governor's alley, in Frankfort.

The Council Was in Contempt.

Judge Cantrell held the City Council of Frankfort in contempt Thursday morning in the case of the Commonwealth against the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, brought by Attorney General Hendrick.

The case dates back some years and has been a long and protracted fight, with Miles & Sons and the Frankfort City Council on one side and the State authorities on the other. Some years ago the City Council passed an ordinance allowing Miles & Son, millers, the privilege to run a switch through Governor's alley to the L. and N. switch-yard, one end of the line terminating in the mill. Governor's alley adjoins the Governor's mansion property. Suit was brought to restrain the Miles Company from the use of the grant by the Commonwealth and the case was taken to the Court of Appeals, which held against the exercise of the privilege. Another ordinance was passed by the Council granting the same privilege to the L. and N. Railroad Company which had first been granted the Miles. Suit was then entered by the Attorney General on the ground that the last ordinance was passed in contempt of court. Judge Cantrell held the Council in contempt.

"A Woman's Devotion."

It is a beautiful military comedy-drama in three acts, and will be interspersed with songs, dances etc. With the cast secured to play the parts it is safe to say it will prove the best amateur comedy performance ever given in Maysville, and being for benefit of the Washington Fire Company ought to insure packed houses every night.

THE ADVERTISEMENT AS A SALESMAN.

It is an ideal salesman to the retail dealer—a salesman that never tires or sleeps, combining in himself the gravity of a clergyman, the eloquence of an orator, the attractions of an actor, the astuteness of a lawyer, and the experience of an expert drummer, and going about its business at all times and in all seasons. It accosts and addresses the merchant in his store, the capitalist in his office, the student and professional man in his seclusion. It is in all places at once, and can address a million people every day of the year; and it is capable of saying the right thing at the right time, in the right place and in the right way.—Exchange

A LUNAR RAINBOW.

A Rare and Beautiful Phenomenon Witnessed in the Sky Last Night.

A rare phenomenon was witnessed in the western sky last night.

Shortly after 8 o'clock a dark, dangerous-looking cloud made its appearance, accompanied by lightning and thunder. It was traveling very fast, and many believed a cyclone was sweeping down on Maysville, and there was a hurried search for shelter.

In the Eastern sky but few clouds were to be seen, and the full, round moon was shining brightly.

While the people were watching the approach of the storm, a lunar rainbow suddenly appeared in all its beauty. It was of short duration, however, as the moon was soon hidden behind the fast-flying clouds. The storm didn't amount to much of a storm.

The lunar rainbow is a rare phenomenon and differs from the solar simply in the source and intensity of the light by which it is produced. As in all cases of feeble light, the distinction of the colors is very difficult. In fact, except under the most favorable circumstances, the lunar rainbow rarely shows colors at all, giving a pale ghostly gleam of apparently white or yellowish light. The one last night had this characteristic yellowish light.

SINTON'S ANSWER.

The Rich Cincinnati Trying to Defeat a Claim of the State National Bank Against R. H. Ellison.

Says the Cincinnati Enquirer: "Mr. David Sinton, who is one of the defendants in the suit of the State National Bank of Maysville against R. H. Ellison, T. J. Shelton and others, in the United States Circuit Court, filed an answer and cross-bill to the suit Saturday.

"In December, 1891, the bank had recovered a judgment against Ellison and Shelton, partners, for $4,969.28 on two promissory notes, but when the United States Marshal tried to execute the judgment he was unable to find any goods or chattels belonging to the partners. A levy was then made upon lands and tenements in Adams County which had belonged to the partners, but had been transferred to Mr. Sinton.

"Ellison had assigned on October 14, 1889, and four days later the assignment was set aside by the Probate Court and Ellison's property restored.

"Mr. Sinton claims that the property in Adams County belongs to him, and that the plaintiffs have no claim to it. He asks that the court quiet and confirm his title to the property."

AT Louisville last week the $25,000 damage suit of Mrs. Margaret A. Prewitt, of Winchester, against the Union Warehouse Company and Kentucky Tobacco Growers' Association was concluded, the jury returning a verdict of $6,500 for the plaintiff. Mrs. Prewitt sued for the death of her husband John W. Prewitt, who was killed on January 21, 1891, by falling down the elevator shaft at the defendants' warehouse on the day it was opened. The petition alleged that the accident was due to the defective railing by which the mouth of the shaft was guarded, and which gave way, precipitating Prewitt to the bottom. Negligence in the defendants in permitting such defective railing to remain around the opening was the ground upon which the defendants were held liable.

THE Lexington Gazette wants the city of Lexington to borrow or hire Mayor Bronaugh, of Nicholasville, for a year or two to straighten out the tangled skein of Lexington finances. Nicholasville, it says, is run at an annual cost of $7,000, with a population of about 3,000, or at a cost of about $2.50 per capita. Lexington has spent in the past year $382,000, or about $12.40 per capita. With ten times the population, Lexington spends fifty-six times as much money. Yet, the Gazette asserts, Nicholasville has good streets, good public schools, sufficient water supply and fire protection, and not a dollar of debt. The model Mayor who has brought this about is serving his fourteenth term, and will not accept a dollar of salary. There are several towns in the State that might make arrangements with profit for Mr. Bronaugh's services, says the Courier-Journal.

THE GOLD SITUATION

Offers Continue to Come in and Confidence is Restored.

NO FEARS OF FINANCIAL CRISIS.

Interesting Comparison of Amount of Gold in the East and West—Good Results Expected From Secretary Carlisle's Conference With the Chicago Bankers.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—No better indications of the restored confidence in the financial situation is necessary than the fact that no gold exports were made from New York, and it does not appear now that any large amount will go out on Tuesday, and perhaps none at all.

The plain statement made to the New York bankers by Secretary Carlisle appears to have allayed the apprehension that existed. Gold offers continue to come in the last city to offer assistance. Little Rock, which sends $1,000,000, the gold to be exchanged for legal tender. All these offers are being accepted, and if necessary can be called for by the treasury department at any moment, but until the exchange is actually made the free gold does not appear on the treasurer's daily statement, which accounts for the fact that the books of the department show only $93,000 of free gold, although the amount which Secretary Carlisle would utilize is probably a little over $2,000,000.

Assistant Secretary Hamlin is much pleased at the situation, which he described as "most promising."

The statement of Secretary Carlisle that "every effort of the administration will be exerted in the direction of the repeal of the Sherman silver law," is regarded here as an anti-silver edict, and the announcement has aroused and placed on the alert the free silver advocates. The latter assert that they are ready for the battle, and everything promises a lively silver fight in the next congress.

"New York is no longer the gold center of the country, so far as the gold in national banks is concerned," remarked a prominent treasury official. "She has been playing a great game of bluff and trying to impress the world with the fact that she can embarrass or relieve the present situation as she pleases. As a matter of fact, there is less gold in the national banks of New York than in Chicago, and the gold center is west of the Alleghenies."

On March 6, last, the comptroller of the currency called for reports from all national banks as to the amount of gold on hand. A between New York and Chicago the reports show the amount of gold held to be: New York, $12,433,632; Chicago, $14,824,600.

This brings out the important fact that the demands which have been made by the New York bankers during the recent crisis were largely in the nature of "bluffs."

As between the west and the east the former has $54,000,000 of gold in its national banks, while the east has only $39,000,000.

Here is an interesting statement: Gold in western cities, $21,604,890; gold in eastern cities, $22,411,774; gold in western states, $25,541,002; gold in eastern states, $10,708,559.

Mr. Eckler reports show that Chicago is the first of 15 large western cities which have heavy stocks of gold, while New York is the first of eight large eastern cities with large supplies of gold. Thus the western cities outrank the eastern, both in number and in amount of gold carried.

The western states are also ahead of eastern states in their supply of gold. The reports made to the comptroller, it should be remembered, do not cover the supplies of gold held by private individuals, private banks or state banks.

The Chicago banks have already tendered the use of their gold to the secretary of the treasury, so the conference of Mr. Carlisle with them is likely to produce much more satisfactory results than that which he had with the New York bankers.

TERRE HUTE, Ind., May 1.—The state executive board of Union Mine Workers and the executive board of the operators met, and when it was agreed that there was little or no prospect of a settlement before the beginning of the scale year on Monday, it was decided to continue the old scale of 75 cents a ton for one week. In the meantime the conference will be continued. The men ask for an increase of 5 cents a ton, which the operators, so far, have refused.

Whole Family Asphyxiated.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 1.—The family of William Smith, living in the suburb of North Indianapolis, was asphyxiated Saturday night, the father and son being found dead Sunday morning. Smith keeps a general store and the family occupy rooms in the rear of the building. Not appearing Sunday morning neighbors broke into the place after failing to arouse anyone. They there found the horrible scene described. The mother is still alive.

Death Sentences Pronounced.

LITTLE ROCK, May 1.—In the federal court at Fort Smith Judge Parker sentenced to death Marshall Tucker, John Hicks, John Gourko and Alexander Allen. The execution is to take place July 12. Tucker is a white man, formerly a deputy United States marshal. The others are Cherokee outlaws. There crimes were committed in the Indian Territory. Allen is only 16 years old.

Horrible Crime in Texas.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Tex., May 1.—John Walton was found dead in his house, 11 miles from town, having been shot to death. His wife and seven children are missing. He has been insane for a number of years, and it is supposed he butchered his whole family, secreting their bodies and then committing suicide.

PTOLEMY's first dam Patsy F., by Mambrino Patchen 58, the greatest brood mare sired that ever lived. He sired twenty-two trotters and the dams of seventy-two in the 230 list and the grand sire of over one hundred.

Happy Medium is unrivaled by any other sire of speed. There is no better bred horse on earth than Ptolemy. You cannot make a mistake in breeding to him. He has size—being 16 1/2 hands high—is a beautiful dark bay of fine style and action, and is as sound as a dollar. You are liable to get a race horse or bound to get a large, rangy roadster that always sells. His colts now yearlings are all bays, large and fine. Mares sent to him will secure the best of attention. I have plenty of grass, for which no charge will be made the first thirty days while breeding. In breeding to highly bred standard horses you are breeding in and improving your stock.

I also have a fine, large SPANISH JACK that is a sure foal. Gets large and fine colts. Terms $10 to insure a living colt.
